"THE RED RIDER"
Blue Streak Western
Starring Jack Hoxie

* * *

White Elk is a light skinned Indian Chieftain, known to the whites as "The Peacemaker". He has incurred the enmity of chief Black Panther because he prevented the latter from looting a west-bound wagon train, and because White Elk is the favored suitor of an Indian Princess who is coveted by Black Panther.

Although betrothed to the Princess, White Elk is torn from her by his new found love for a white girl who came with the train. The young chief is tricked into signing away the lands of his tribe by an unscrupulous impostor who leads him to believe that he is signing a peace pact and through the influence of Black Panther is condemned to the stake as a traitor. They light the fire under him but he is saved by a cloud-burst.

White Elk's supposed father tells him that he is really a white man, saved from a massacre when a baby, and brought up as an Indian.

The white girl has been captured by the Indians in a raid and sent riding toward a waterfall, strapped in a canoe. She is saved by White Elk. The Indian girl gets in the canoe and offers herself as a sacrifice. White Elk is found to be the lost son of the old scout who leads the wagon train and, therefore, a fit husband for the white girl.
